ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT FOR THE SPECK.IT WEBSITE

The Speck Alto Adige Consortium is committed to making its website accessible in accordance with Italian Law 4 of January 9, 2004.

This accessibility statement applies to the website https://www.speck.it/.

Conformity status

Partially compliant

This website is partially compliant with the requirements of Annex A of the UNI CEI EN 301549 standard due to the non-compliances listed below.

Non-accessible content

The following content is not accessible for the following reason:

a) Non-compliance with Italian Law 4 of January 9, 2004

- The colors of some texts and controls do not ensure sufficient contrast with the background.
- The focus order does not follow a logical flow, causing difficulties in keyboard navigation.
- Some images and interactive controls lack adequate text descriptions.
- Some interactive elements do not display a visible focus state, making it difficult to identify which element is active.
- Not all controls and menus are fully accessible via keyboard.
- There is no "Skip to main content" link to allow faster navigation for users with assistive technologies.
- Some links are not descriptive and do not provide sufficient information about the action or linked content.

The Speck Alto Adige Consortium is committed to taking the necessary actions to resolve the identified issues and make the website fully accessible. These actions are planned and will be implemented progressively.

To report cases of non-compliance or request information and content excluded from the scope of the accessibility directive, you can send an email to info@speck.it.

Reporting to AgID

If the response is unsatisfactory or no response is received within thirty days of the notification or request, the concerned party may file a report using the method indicated on AgID's official website.

Drafting of the Accessibility Statement
